

We now have this light shining in our hearts, but we ourselves are like fragile clay jars containing this great treasure. This makes it clear that our great power is from God, not from ourselves.

We are pressed on every side by troubles, but we are not crushed. We are perplexed, but not driven to despair. We are hunted down, but never abandoned by God. We get knocked down, but we are not destroyed. Through suffering, our bodies continue to share in the death of Jesus so that the life of Jesus may also be seen in our bodies.

~ 2 Corinthians 4:7-10 (NLT)

Sustaining God, Thank you for never leaving me in my troubles.

Earthly troubles are only temporary in light of eternity with You. Help me to persevere when life is hard.

Thank you for giving me Your Spirit to lead me, sustain me and empower me in all circumstances.

You meet all of my needs and my hope is in You.

My life is not my own and I willingly give it to You.

May your light shine through my weaknesses so that others may see You and know You.

When I am weak, You are strong.
Amen
